NEW* Mapping Feature on TourTheAlleghenies.com

ALTOONA, PA – The Alleghenies regional tourism program- representing Blair, Bedford, Cambria, Centre, Huntingdon, Juniata River Valley, Laurel Highlands & McConnellsburg.

The Alleghenies Regional Tourism Council announces the newest feature to TourTheAlleghenies.com- a turn-by-turn mapping feature for planning ease. Users have the option of choosing themed sample itineraries or building a customized tour. The new mapping feature gives users the option to submit beginning and ending destinations & the mapping feature provides turn-by-turn directions to their chosen tour & properties. Users still have the option to speak with an Alleghenies' tour representative for tour planning assistance. The Tourism Council hopes this added feature will make planning tours & getaways to The Alleghenies easier for tour operators & the general public and as a means to promote tourism to the region.
